

SHERRY ESKANDER

Sherry.eskander@dal.ca

SKILLS SUMMARY

- Native Fluency in French, English, Arabic, and intermediate proficiency in German
- Leadership and Interpersonal Skills
- Organization and data analysis
- Time management
- Teamwork
- Python, Microsoft, Adobe, HTML5, CSS3, 3D Scanner, Raspberry Pi programming
- Beginner Sailor
- Semi-competitive Volleyball and Racquet Leagues
- Pianist and First Violinist

EDUCATION

Doctor of Medicine, Faculty of Medicine, Dalhousie University (2023-present)

Honours Bachelor of Science, University of Toronto – Double Major in Psychology and Biology (2023)

EXPERIENCE

- Director of Skills and Workshop (2023 - 2024)
 - Conference of Atlantic Medical Students 2024 (CoAMS)
 - Designing and developing workshop content, topics, and skills aligning with the conference theme and objectives.
 - Creating interactive sessions that promote engagement and participation from attendees, fostering a dynamic learning environment.
 - Managing the budget allocated for workshops, including expenses related to materials, speaker fees, and other logistical requirements.
 - Overseeing logistical aspects such as reaching out to potential speakers, room setup, materials needed for workshops.
- Dalhousie Medical School Admissions Committee and Sub Committee Member (2024 - Present)
 - Dalhousie Medical School Admissions Office
 - Collaborate with committee members to review and evaluate applications, assessing academic qualifications, personal statements, and any circumstances impacting applicants
 - Reviewing policies and assessment rubrics and provide constructive feedback to improve the admissions process and candidate experience.
 - Conduct interviews to assess candidates' interpersonal skills, motivations, and suitability for a career in medicine.
 - Ensure a fair and equitable admissions process, promoting diversity and inclusion within the candidate pool.
 - Stay informed on trends in medical education, statistics and demographics

- Represent the medical school positively to prospective students and the community.
- CAMSA Bilingualism and Medical Education Committee (2023-present)
 - CAMSA
 - Creatively translate resources keeping the essence of the work transferable and accessible in both languages, ensuring our events and resources are inclusive and representative.
 - Graphic designer and editorial team member for the first edition of the CAMSA Match Book – a resource that provides comprehensive advice from residents across all specialties, detailed match statistics (including program-specific data and iterations), and insights on residency pathways within the Maritimes.
- Kids Run Club Coordinator and Running Coach (2023 - Present)
 - Kids Run Club
 - Organize and Lead Warm-up exercises to avoid any cramps and injuries during the run
 - Guide and support children's running pace to support longer running distance with better breathing techniques
 - Inspire kids to embrace physical activity as part of their daily lifestyle and explore new avenues of physical and mental wellbeing.
 - Coach and connect with children during these community runs, encourage their hopes, goals, dream, and foster a sense of community and teamwork.
 - Promote the development of healthy habits to lead to long-term well-being and lead to better health outcomes for our future community.
- Mentorship Education, Leadership Developer and Programmer (2020- 2022)
 - Employer: University of Toronto Student Life – Leadership, Mentorship and Clubs
 - Scheduling appointments with students to provide guidance and, while answering any inquiries
 - Maintain mentorship database, analyze reflection responses to extract specific data sets, follow up with coordinators and mentors surrounding updates, training completion and accommodations
 - Develop asynchronous workshop material, videos and resources for students. Moderate and develop curriculum for workshops.
 - Leading group and individual projects to improve function of the team.
 - Provide Training for Peer Leadership Facilitators
 - Administrative support across the Leadership and Equity, Diversity &
 - Inclusion teams. Supporting event planning and logistical execution of programs, including troubleshooting