

Tyler Williamson

EDUCATION

Doctor of Medicine, Queen's University, (2023 – Current)

Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, Health and Society Minor, University of British Columbia, 2022

Bachelor of Jazz Studies (Performance Major), Capilano University, 2015

LEADERSHIP AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

President, Queen's University School of Medicine Aesculapian Society (2024 – Present)

- Oversee and manage a 35-member student council, representing over 400 medical students
- Advocate for student needs and academic policies at national medical conferences across Canada, such as the Canadian Federation of Medical Students AGM
- Lead the revitalization of key student initiatives that were disrupted by COVID-19
- Support and mentor medical students in launching new academic and extracurricular initiatives
- Act as a liaison between students, faculty, and external organizations to enhance medical education and student wellness

1st Year Class President, Queen's University School of Medicine (2023-2024)

- Administered and led the First-Year Class Council, coordinating initiatives and student representation
- Acted as the primary liaison between students and faculty, advocating for academic and student concerns
- Organized class-wide events & initiatives to foster engagement and support student success

Co-Director and Musical Arranger, Hippochromatic Notes A Cappella Choir, Queen's University School of Medicine (2023-2025)

- Co-director of an extracurricular a cappella choir of 30-40 medical students, running rehearsals,
- Arrange music for the choir, such as a 5-part a cappella arrangement of Sabrina Carpenter's "Please Please Please"
- Perform for charity events and at long term care homes in the Kingston area

Senior Executive, QueerMed, Queen's University School of Medicine (2023-2025)

- Executive for the 2SLGBTQIA+ medical students' group at Queen's
- Responsible for planning the annual Birds and the MDs event, a workshop for sexual health and sexual identity education for medical students
- Plan the annual Pride event for the School of Medicine, coordinating speakers and advertising to students

RELEVANT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Finance Assistant, St. Paul's Foundation (Sep 2022 – Jul 2023)

- Managed the disbursement of nearly $40 million to over 200 healthcare organizations supporting research and patient care
- Provided financial and administrative support to a 50-person team overseeing multimillion-dollar fundraising efforts
- Assisted with financial audits
- Coordinated and supported charitable events and supported donor relations

Program Director, Zajac Ranch for Children (Sept 2021 – Sept 2022)

- Designed and led specialized all-inclusive camp programs for children with medical needs and disabilities, regardless of diagnosis or capabilities
- Managed grants, donor relations, and funding applications
- Oversaw interdisciplinary teams, including healthcare professionals, volunteers, and staff
- Developed training materials and led staff workshops on best practices in working with diverse populations
- Integrated data collection and participant feedback to optimize impact and inform program development

Community Outreach Manager & Programs Assistant, Pacific Autism Family Network (Sep 2021 – July 2023)

- Designed and implemented programs and events in collaboration with stakeholders
- Managed grants, funding applications, and stakeholder relations
- Developed public engagement and outreach strategies

Office Admin & Camp Counselor, Zajac Ranch (Mar – Sep 2021)

- Assisted in successful grant applications, donor relations, and project development
- Designed and executed an annual social media strategy
- Organized and coordinated large-scale camp programming

Geriatric Psychiatry Private Companion, Vancouver General Hospital (Oct 2018 – Jun 2019)

- Provided one-on-one companionship and socialization for geriatric patients
- Completed Dementia Care Training (Gentle Persuasive Approach)
- Gained experience in mental health and cognitive disability interactions

PRESENTATIONS

Williamson, T., Yu I, Rivera, J., Bird, M., Grant, P. "Intersecting Identities: Assessing Transgender, BIPOC, and Transgender BIPOC Satisfaction with Genetic Counselling Services in Canada." Multidisciplinary Undergraduate Research Conference, UBC. Vancouver, BC. March 2021
